Dear Parents & Carers of Nursery Children

Application for Reception September 2020

As your child is due to start Reception in September 2020, we would like to inform you that the online portal for you to apply for your child's Reception place is now open. The application form must be completed online via the NCC website by 15th January 2020 or the application will be classed as 'late' and will not be processed until all other 'on time' applications have been allocated. Further information can be found on the School Admissions page by following the link below.
