Book Fair/Reading Challenge

Dear Parents/Carers,

We had a fantastic world book day yesterday with some amazing costumes on show!

Yesterday afternoon, we had Rachel Shayler from the Wiggly Worm book company come into school and deliver an assembly regarding a reading challenge and a book fair.

Today, all children will receive a reading log (listening log for Nursery) and a sponsorship form. We would greatly appreciate your support with raising some money over the next week which can all be spent on new books for school.

This year, we are working in collaboration with the Wiggly Worm book company and Usborne as they will donate additional funding to the school based upon how much we raise.

We are also holding a book fair on March 9th. This will operate slightly differently to previous books fairs. All children will have the opportunity to browse books throughout the school day and also after school in the studio. Children/parents will pay and order the books on the day and these will then be delivered to school. Payment can be made with cash or by card. Again, money raised via the bookfair will help raise money for books for Ellington.

We believe that reading is the most important part of education and really hope that more books in school will further enhance our library and further develop reading for pleasure.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or our English lead, Mrs Sanders.

Best Wishes,

Mr Hodgson
